

Cow Peat: Cow peat is a form of soil amendment that contains macro and micronutrients that are incredible and essential for plant growth. There are a multitude of sustainable practices throughout the lower mainland for gathering cow peat and using it in soils such as ours.